

International Scholar House Overnight Guest Request Form

The International Scholar House is solely intended for the use of international scholars. However, a resident is permitted to have an overnight guest if the following conditions are met:

Please check all that apply to ensure your eligibility for an overnight guest.

- My guest is not a Bridgewater State University student, staff, or faculty member
- My guest will be staying for a maximum of one week.
- All residents of International Scholar House have signed this document to signify their agreement with the stay of an overnight guest and the duration of the stay.
- This Overnight Guest Request Form was submitted to ISSS prior to the guest's arrival.

Visiting scholars are permitted to have overnight guests only if approved by ISSS, and other residents. Guests should not be current BSU students and/or faculty. Guests are permitted to stay for a maximum of one week. Residents may only host one guest at a time. Failure to adhere to the abovementioned procedure, will result in the forfeiture of overnight guest privileges. A repeat offense may result in the termination of your stay.
